ABOUT US

Hi, I'm Scott, Founder and Lead Advisor at Professional Defense Advisors. Drawing on my experience as a First Responder, Police Instructor, and Supervisor, I bring practical, real-world solutions to the table. I'm dedicated to empowering individuals who prioritize the safety of themselves and their families by offering essential life-saving skills.

My expertise spans various disciplines, and I hold certifications as a Police and Civilian Firearms Instructor, Police and Driving Instructor, Department of Public Safety Instructor, and Civilian Expert Taser Instructor. Additionally, I'm a certified instructor in Home Firearm Safety, Refuse to be a Victim, Personal Protection in the Home, and CPR/AED/Basic First Aid. My commitment to excellence extends to being a Force Science Institute Analyst and an expert witness on Use of Force.

At our core, we provide training that goes beyond theoretical knowledge, focusing on practical skills that can make a difference in critical situations. If you're serious about developing your Safety IQ, protecting your business, or developing various personal safety skills, you're in the right place.
